Our Goal

- Communicate that voters are valued, welcomed, and included
- Increase civic engagement

State League Policy on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

LWW is an organization fully committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion in principle and in practice. Diversity, equity, and inclusion are central to the organization's current and future success in engaging all individuals, households, communities, and policy makers in creating a more perfect democracy.

There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of gender, gender identity, ethnicity, race, native or indigenous origin, age, generation, sexual orientation, culture, religion, belief system, marital status, parental status, socioeconomic status, language, accent, ability status, mental health, educational level or background, geography, nationality, work style, appearance, political perspective or personality type, physical appearance, or any other characteristic that can be identified as recognizing or illustrating diversity.

no barriers to full participation

What are protected classes in the City of Madison?

- Age
- Arrest record
- Skin color
- Conviction record
- Current or past military service
- Disability / Handicap
- Familiar status
- HIV status
- Less than honorable discharge
- Marital status
- National origin / Ancestry
- Physical appearance
- Political beliefs
- Race
- Religion / Creed
- Sex / Gender
- Sexual orientation
- Source of income
- Student status
- Use or non-use of lawful products off the employer's premises during non-work hours

Barriers to full participation

- Biases = attitudes for/against a group
- Discrimination = negative treatment
- Microaggressions = unintentional discrimination
 - brief, every day slights
 - verbal, behavioral, or environmental communications

Examples of microaggressions

- A poll worker raises her voice when speaking to a voter who is visually impaired.
- "You speak English really well."
- "When I look at you, I don't see color."
- "Where are you really from?"
- "That's such a pretty name."

Who is impacted?

- Volunteer → Voter
- Volunteer → Volunteer
- Volunteer → On-site staff
- Voter → Volunteer

What does this look like when registering voters?

- National Origin (citizenship)
- Race/Ethnicity
- Gender
- Political Beliefs

Citizenship (eligibility to vote)

Wisconsin Voter Registration Application Please complete legibly. Additional instructions on reverse. Please return your completed form to your municipal clerk.

Qualifications
 please check each box if YOU

If you cannot check every box, do NOT complete this form.

Are a citizen of the United States Will be at least 18 years old on or before Election Day

Have resided at the address provided below for at least 28 consecutive days prior to the election and do not currently intend to move Are not currently serving a sentence including incarceration, parole, probation, or extended supervision for a felony conviction

- Make voter aware of basic requirements
- Voter determines eligibility
- NOT appropriate to ask only certain individuals if they are citizens
 - Assumes citizenship is visible
 - It is biased and discriminatory!
- NOT appropriate to comment on a voter's age

Bias on the basis of race/ethnicity

- NOT appropriate to comment on voter's name. For example:
 - "How do you say your name?"
 - "That's a pretty/unusual/hard to pronounce name"
 - "You must be from X"
- NOT appropriate to comment on language
- Appearance ≠ eligibility

Bias on the basis of gender identity

- Voters are registered by name and address, NOT by gender
- Do not question voter's "real" name
- OK if name on documents does not match gender presentation

Use gendered language with caution

- Use gender neutral language
 - they/them/theirs as a singular pronoun
 - "The voter," " the applicant," and "this person/student"
 - "The student in the red shirt" instead of "The lady over there"

Partisan behavior

- Do NOT engage in partisan behavior!
 - Partisan = endorsing candidate or party
- You CAN:
 - Provide dates and deadlines
 - Help to register
 - Inform about candidates through non-partisan resources
 - Candidates Answers
 - MyVote.wi.gov
 - VOTE411.org

More information: NonprofitVOTE.org

Partisan behavior

- Applies to everyone, including other volunteers
 - Don't assume or ask other volunteers' political affiliation or voting preferences
 - Do not hold partisan discussions with volunteers or friends

Summary

- Don't make assumptions based on people's appearances
 - Voting preference
 - Citizenship
 - Gender
 - Whether they have family who live nearby.
- Ask everyone the same questions!
- Keep all comments about appearance to yourself (yes, even positive ones)

What to do if inappropriate conduct happens?

- Direct: Confront the situation.
- Distract: De-escalate. Change the subject.
- Delegate: Seek help from the lead volunteers, or bring in peers for support.
- Delay: Check in with the person being targeted later.
- Document: Make notes about the incident.

Who to talk to?

- Talk to the other person (if not the Lead)
- Talk to the Lead Volunteer
- City Clerk
 - 608-266-4601
 - clerk@cityofmadison.com
- Department of Civil Rights
 - 608-266-4910
 - dcr@cityofmadison.com

What to do if you engage in biased behavior?

- Apologize briefly and move on
- Then, think about your actions
 - Why?
 - What kind of unconscious associations have you learned?
 - How can you unlearn them?
- Reflect beforehand! Do you have assumptions about...
 - Who is eligible to vote?
 - Who needs assistance?
 - What strengths you and others have?

You represent the League of Women Voters

- Show dignity and respect to everyone
- Conduct yourself in a non-partisan manner
- Act in ways to increase civic engagement.
